Date	Genre	Admission	Event Description
Oct. 12 Friday 7:00 PM	Jazz	$18.00	A Tribute to Benny Goodman/Lionel Hampton Featuring Vancouver Clarinetist Liam Hockley and Seattle Vibraphonist Susan Pascal Fans of the Swing Era (and who isn't?) will be ecstatic about this international collaboration between two brilliant musicians who share a love for these historical giants of jazz and the music that they have passed down to us. With Ron Hadley-piano, Joey Smith-bass and Don Leppard-drums
Oct. 13 Saturday 12:00 noon	Multi-genre	$12.00	Itamar Erez (guitar, piano) Itamar Erez is an Israeli born Canadian composer, pianist and guitarist whose music is infused with a deep sensitivity that touches the hearts of listeners. He blends the delicateness of Middle Eastern music, the freedom found in Jazz and the passion of Flamenco, creating a unique sound all his own.
Oct. 13 Saturday 7:00 PM	Classical	$18.00	The CHROMA String Quartet Founded in 2015 during the String Quartet Seminar of Cuarteto Latinoamericano, this multiple award-winning quartet is comprised of members Ilya Ivanov (Violin/Viola), Felix Alanis (Violin/Viola), Carlos Quijano (Violin) and Manuel Cruz (Cello), all of whom are currently completing advanced performance degrees at the University of Victoria under the tutelage of the renowned Lafayette String Quartet. This evening's program will include works by Mozart and Beethoven.
Oct. 14 Sunday 2:30 PM	Classical	$18.00	Soprano Anne Grimm and Bruce Vogt, piano A native of the Netherlands and current University of Victoria Voice Faculty member, Ms. Grimm is known for her "expressive technique" and "dramatic presence" and has performed throughout Europe, North America, Australia and New Zealand in concert, opera and recital. She is joined today by UVic Piano faculty member and internationally acclaimed pianist Mr. Vogt in what is certain to be a delightfully diverse and engaging afternoon of song.
